The problematics are the specter of the isolated soul and subject, the relation between art and truth, the notion that ontological and axiological positions are constructed recourse to an aesthetics of the subject, which means art and aesthetics play a central role in the overcoming of the fallenness of the soul and the isolation of the self. Il furore e la quiete improvvisa di certe mareggiate, il singhiozzo che si strozza in gola, il colpo di coda dello scorpione cattivo. This origin was popularised by Paterson in an introduction to his poem 'Brumby's run' printed in A common suggestion is that brumby derives from the proper name Brumby.
